

Consumer Privacy Notice

Rev. 01/2023 FACTS WHAT DOES SUNWEST BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives Why? consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do. The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service What? you have with us. This information can include: Social Security number and credit history • Account balances and transaction history Credit history and payment history ٠ When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice. All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their How? everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Sunwest Bank chooses share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Sunwest Bank Share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes – Such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes – To offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – Information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – Information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions?

Call 714-730-4444 or go to www.sunwestbank.com

Who we are
What we do
How does Sunwest Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Sunwest Bank collect my personal information?	 We collect your personal information, for example, when you open an account or deposit money pay your bills or apply for a loan use your credit card or debit card We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies
Why can't you limit all sharing?	 Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness affiliates from using your information to market to you sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state laws.
Definitions
Affiliates	 Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Sunwest Bank does not share with our affiliates
Nonaffiliates	 Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Sunwest Bank does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you
Joint marketing	 A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. Sunwest Bank does not jointly market

Other important information

California: Under California law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of Sunwest Bank, unless the law allows. For example, we may share information with your consent, to service your accounts, or to provide rewards or benefits you are entitled to. We will limit sharing among our companies to the extent required by California law.

Depending on where you live, you may have other privacy protections under state laws. We will comply with any applicable state laws before sharing any nonpublic personal information about you by sending a separate notice to you.